

Free Programs, Free Books, Free Fun!

Studies show that it's best to keep learning all year long, even when school is out, so that you don't slip when school starts.

Sign up to be a part of Fairview Public Library's summer reading program anytime in June. Read 5 books or 20 hours, and return your reading log to get your free book prize(s).

This summer we have more performers and partners making this a more fun summer than ever before. Come check it out!

To Wrap It Up

Sports Movies Marathon- July 28th
Relax at the end of the summer and celebrate all your accomplishments by joining us from 1:30-7:30 as we show three movies-- one about a women's baseball league, another about a bob-sledding team from Jamaica, and finally a movie about a homeless teen who turns into a football hero.

Your Reading Options:

- Books in print (in the library)
- E-books (from GA Download Destinations, one of our online resources)
- Audiobooks (from GA Download Destinations or OneClick Digital, an online resource)

Don't Forget!

Bring back your reading log anytime in July to get your prize. If you opt in to the Amazing Reading Race program where you read books connected to at least five continents and write reviews, you can get an additional prize for that.

Summer Feeding Program

We are centering many of our programs around our free summer lunch from 12:30-1:30 P.M. and our free snack time from 3:30-4:30 P.M. for children and teens Monday-Thursday. We always have programs for children and adults as well. Don't miss out!
